b. The Soviet Corporation Plant Kabel management is in Berlin-Oberschoeneweide.

c. A Soviet bureau for signal communication matters was known to be in the building of the Knorr Inc. Available information on this bureau covers a period up to the fall of 1947 only and does not permit any conclusions concerning work on radar techniques.

d. From this report, which requires confirmation, it may be assumed that a department for radar techniques has been established with a view to exploiting the remaining German technical capacities or to directing industrial espionage against the western European states.
